I lie awake in my bed and I'm thinking of you, crazy thoughts running through my head
All this time has gone by and I've finally decided, there's no more time for me to pretend

Inside I'm dying, I'm tired of hiding from you

I'm trying, trying to get to you,
I'm trying, trying to get to you

So many choices and so many voices,
I'm a prisoner of my own regret
I was afraid to live you, now I'm afraid to lose you and I promise that I'll never forget

A future unfolding, an endless story that's true

I'm trying, trying to get to you,
I'm trying, trying to get to you

Days fly, nights cry, desperately seeking this am I,
Where is my place, when will I see your face,
I feel you all around me

Touch me, hold me, whisper in my ear
You're the only voice I want to hear

I'm trying, trying to get to you,
I'm trying, trying to get to you
