The neon lights in a city so bright
The clashing sounds and a busy sight
You and me lets run far away for here
Lets lay here in a field of winter white

The darkness turns to light
The sun is shinning on a brighter day oh
In your arms I know everything will be alright my dear
I feel like I'm in a fantasy
I'm Alice in a wonderland

You look in my eyes and I get carried away
Oh what a beautiful melody
You taught me to forgive and forget
But to never regret my dear
Your strength is my lullaby

The darkness turns to light
The sun is shinning on a brighter day
In your arms I know everything will be alright my dear
I feel like I'm in a fantasy
I'm Alice in a wonderland
