Frozen frames, you sold your soul
To the devils dance, its growing old.
Corners bent, your money's spent
On flimsy wonders and high cut rent
Empty bottles and rock n roll
Sleepless nights have taken their toll
This is do or die, look me in the eye
Im not one to cry.

[Chorus]

Searching for green lights
Is this my right away?
Do I run the red, I don't want this to be my death bed
Searching for green lights (x2)

These dynamics, how romantic
Sittin over coffee talkin' about antics
Green lights flashing, ready to go
You have the paddle so please just row
Hearts freeze while cars are racing
They don't even know what their chasing
This uncanny life we can't contain
Is this alibi in vain?

[Chorus]

Concrete sidewalks, cracks in all
Wanted signs are tacked to the wall
Secrets arent fun when you're the one who caused the ribbon to come undone

Searching for green lights
Is this my right away?
Do I run the red, I don't want this to be my death bed
This is my risk to take, I'll move either way,
This is my choice to make (choice to make)
And just like that, Ive found the green lights (green lights)
Im happy to say, this is the end of the tour
