"I didnt think it would change us,
I didnt mean anything."
Why yes, Im throwing your words back at you
I'm drifting off to sea like I do
A friendships been broken
And one heart, too

[Chorus]
And its not fair, really
I trusted, damn that trust
And it's not fair, really
It was just us

Leave me now to my thoughts and my pieces
And please don't tear me down
Cry for me would you
Cry for our mistake
I want to see a tear trickle down your face

[Chorus]

What an ugly, deadly sin
Of the seven, we were in
[Chorus]
