I miss [Incomprehensible]

We argued about the big stuff
Money, drugs and sex
Self-determination, choices and bad mistakes
And our self-respect

But I ended up counting coins
Buying pills, stressing out
Then passed out I've caught it in
The velocity of love

I am bored of the big stuff
So we fucked up, I want my hope back
Trip me up, I'll get you back
My friends are all fucked up

We ended up flipping out, smashing glass
Grasping hands, biting lips
Falling hard into
The velocity of love

We ended up flipping out, smashing glass
Grasping hands, biting lips
Falling hard into it

Counting coins, swallowing pills, acting up
Then passing out right into it
The velocity of love

From one preacher to another
Fame is what you want you'll get it
One fine fucked up to another
If a fight is what you want, you'll get it

If money is all you want
Then money's all you'll get
I'd rather be drunk and in love
Drunk and in love

Let's not get mean about the big stuff
You know I never cared

How product gets moved from place to place
How money's thrown from here to there

Won't end up counting coins, not buying in
Nor pissed off, or stressed out
I'm all caught up in it

I'm flipping out, I'm smashing glass
I'm grasping hands and biting lips
I'm staying desperate

Hell, I'm not counting coins, not buying in
Not stressing out, I'm snapping sails
Far away from all that with
The velocity of love
