Will you dance with me
Like we used to dance in the summer nights
Will you close your eyes
Put your arms around me and hold me tight
There's nothing so very hard to do
And I was missing you
All alone at home waiting for your call so badly

Head over heels
I'm running back to your arms in the night
I fall in love with you one million times
Take my hand, take a chance on me, yeah

Head over heels
We're gonna fly into new emotions
We belong together
You're my first love

Would you easily, lay your trust in me
After all we're through
Could I mend your heart
With the love I've got and take care of you
Without holding you
Without kissing you
I won't let one day go by
I'm here to stay, now and everyday... forever

Head over heels
I'm running back to your arms in the night
I fall in love with you one million times
Take my hand, take a chance on me, yeah

Head over heels
We're gonna fly into new emotions
We belong together
You're my first love

Head over heels
I'm running back to your arms in the night
I fall in love with you one million times
Take my hand, take a chance on me, yeah

Head over heels
We're gonna fly into new emotions
We belong together
You're my first love

We belong together
You're my first love
