Tell me why you're running girl
It's so absurd
Saying we ain't more than friends
Cause to me it's so confusing
Would you wanna play around and settle down
Baby, this just makes no sense
How you always keeps me guessing

Cause it's true
I wanna be with you
What am I gonna do? (ooh)

You're my sexy girl
You're my only world
Why you go and break my heart?
With a love like that, no turning back, no
Sexy girl
You're my only world
Why you go and break my heart?
With a love like that, no turning back, no

Still I keep holding on,
To what's gone
Hoping like a fool would do
That you say that game is over
But baby, you're the gamely kind
Is on the line
There's no way that I'm getting through
I would never win you over

Cause it's true
I wanna be with you
What am I gonna do?
Now ooh

You're my sexy girl
You're my only world
Why you go and break my heart?
With a love like that, no turning back, no

Sexy girl
You're my only world
Why you go and break my heart?
With a love like that, no turning back, no

Take my heart as a token
It's no use to me
I don't need it, It's broken
Now you can be free
And I know that you thinking
I will make it through
You should know I can live without you

You're my sexy girl
You're my only world
Why you go and break my heart?
With a love like that, no turning back, no
Sexy girl (oh, sexy)
You're my only world
Why you go and break my heart?
With a love like that, no turning back, no (No turning back)
Sexy girl
You're my only world
Why you go and break my heart? (oh, my, my, my, my)
With a love like that, no turning back, no
Sexy girl (yes, you are)
you're my only world
Why you go and break my heart?
With a love like that, no turning back, no
