"Grizzly Bear"

When I woke up this morning,
She was gone, solid gone,
Oh yes when I woke up this morning,
She was gone, she was gone.
I used to love to watch her dance the grizzly bear,
I guess she's gone to Frisco to dance it there,
Because when I woke up this morning,
She was gone, she was gone.

She did not even tell me the reason why
She was gone (vo-do-dee-yo)
She did not even tell me
Why she was gone;
I used to love to watch her dance the grizzly bear,
I guess she's gone to Frisco, to dance it there,
Because when I woke up this morning,
She was gone, solid gone.
