Vampire Girls

by Koo Koo Boy

lyrics and music by Scott Coblio

Vampire girls, when all is said and done

Just want to got to the beach

And have a little fun

They want to let their hair down

And catch some rays of sun

Vampire girls

Vampire girls

Vampire girls don't work nine to five

You can catch them on the graveyard shift

But you may not make it home alive

They want to find your soft spot

And drink until it's dry

Vampire girls

Vampire girls

Let's go to the park, to the store, to the store, to the zoo

Everything's closed now, there's nothing to do

Catch a midnight movie, maybe one, maybe two

Vampire girls got nothing to do

Vampire girls walking down the street

In liquid blue eyeshadow

Tatoos on their feet

They're tanning in their daydreams

In peachy beachy heat

Vampire girls

Vampire girls

Vampire girls playing solitaire

Watching Johnny Carson talk to Linda Blair

They read a fashion magazine

With eggwhite in their hair

Vampire girls

Vampire girls
