

Jazz Jamaica

"The Pick-Up Song"

Visit "The Pick-Up Song" on MotoLyrics.com

I got a feeling of deja vu
When I walked through that door
Don't mean to be too forward
But haven't we met before
You must be from Tennessee
Ain't no doubt it's true
Because the only ten I see
In this bar is you
I wanna be with you tonight
Is this love at first sight
Or should I walk by again
Well, girl I've looked forever
We should be together
Tell me where on earth you been
Contrary to the things you've heard
I am not a man of many words
I just need a few
Cause if I rewrote the alphabet
Then baby I would follow you
Your mama must have been an angel
I'll bet your daddy was a thief

Cause he stole as little piece of heaven
Girl, and it's sitting right next to me
Well I knew that you were it
From the moment that we met
Cause you look just like my first wife
And I ain't been married yet
I wanna be with you tonight
Is this love at first sight
Or should I walk by again
Girl, I've looked for you forever
We should be together
Tell me where on earth you been
Contrary to the things you've heard
I am not a man of many words
I just need a few
Cause if I rewrote the alphabet
Then baby I would follow you
Girl if I rewrote the alphabet
Then baby,I,I would follow you

Visit Jazz Jamaica page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.