The Wine Song

Some folks like whiskey, whiskey's mighty fine.
Some folks like moonshine, Lord they, drink it all the time.
My daddy taught me, said, "Son, only way to keep your head in line.
Drink-a that wine wine, wine,
keep your, head stoned all the time." - (That's what he saidâ€¦!)

Look at them luscious little bottles, sittin' up on the shelf,
Red green and yellow, Lord, they are somethin' else,
hmmm.
They mesmerize me, thy way they sparkle and shine.
Drink-a that wine wine, wine,
keep your, head stoned all the time.

Bridge:
One snort of Ruby Port, really rings the bell,
Then a glass of Muscatel, sets my head up well,
Then this sweetest bottle of cheapest sherry wine...I say goodbye to my mind.

While folks around me, insist on startin' wars,
Fightin' and a-hollerin,' gettin' awful sore,
Gotta take some business, I don't pay them no mind.
Drink-a that wine wine, wine,
keep your, head stoned all the time. - (Tell the truthâ€¦!)

While folks around me, insist on startin' wars,

(Spoken) Get out the bathtub, grandma, and take off your socks!
