(chorus)

I wanted to talk just like you
I wanted to walk just like you I truly wanted to be just like you I looked up to you...

(verse I)

You and I
we were the bestest friends but that all soon changed and i just can't forget the way i felt like evrything had faded away i just hoped that you wouldn't change

(Chorus)

i remember when we were best friends
until the day where it all slipped away
i couldn't look up to you anymore
i knew from then on, that life would change.

~i wanted to talk just like you
~i wanted to walk just like you ~i truly wanted to be ~just like you

(verse II)

i just don't see how ppl can get messed up in things especially someone who i knew so well i thought that you would ask me for my help but i guess
i was over my head

(chorus)

I wanted to talk just like you
I wanted to walk just Like you
I truly wanted to be just Like you
I looked up to you
i remember when we were best frineds
until the day where it all
slipped away
i couldn't look up to you anymore
i knew from then on, that life would change

~i wanted to talk just like you

~i looked up to you

i looked up to you
i looked up to you
i looked up to you
