[Kool Keith]

It's me! (It's me!)

Tom, Tom C, the abilities

Brooklyn, the destination

The world has to emulate

And everybody on the side of my man, pick a state

Everybody, the pro, the tools

Afterparty celebrated ESPN Saddam and Eyewitness

News is a hater

Fans follow me, Janet Jackson's father Joe asked me for my autograph

In the Sheraton Hotel elevator

Down the corridor, be in 54

Metallic porcelain platinum sprinkles on the floor

Towels with my initials, spotlights on my bathroom

Cameras watch you, alarms around the bathtub

Monitors watch the mirrors and the toilet tissue

Recline chairs, recline and stare, automatic feet suspension

That's right, the automatic feet suspension

[Chorus]

Times change, uphill

Time to rearrange the downhill flames

Times change, uphill strange

Times change to downhill range

[Kool Keith]

Recline chairs, that's right

Look at you through, see-through walls

Captain Morgan from another dimension, you're taller than me

But in the reality, smaller than me microscopic

How y'all gettin on them cheap private jets

I'm leavin the Hamptons with a professional chauffeur

Takin a helicopter down to Florida, petrol rockin with no suitcases

8000 billion dollars in my pockets

City bling metal pants, price 10 G's

Slacks locked to my body, only Brinks has two keys

[Chorus]
The uphill strange
Facin uphill range
The uphill strange
Facin uphill range

[Kool Keith]
With the "fasten seatbelt" sign on Movin two billion miles an hour, free men findin machines
10 times, faster than the 94-4 Porsche
Leather couch in the dining area Lamborghini dashboard
I get from Denver to Germany in 8 minutes
Rocketship Enterprise, with two-way trips to Guatemala, Venzuela
The average guy gonna move like a sailor
Sellin 2 million records, he couldn't afford basketball gyms
and information piled as great as spades
Lookin down at the small mansion, flyin over the Everglades
Calabasas to pool party
Automatic navigation, gravity on the patio
The NexTel floatin sippin Olde 800
Power talkin, Stetsasonic, Daddy-O
With the Yankee jersey, the Atlanta Falcon on me 200 thousand dollars worth of stuff, a pack of Pokemon
cards
I'm stokin ya yard, 600 major league baseball cards
From game grow, the same so
I'm down to earth, with a humungous ego

[Chorus]
The power people
The power sequel
Uphill range
Goin downhill strange
