So I have given away my cover
So I bear my wounds to this world
Been carrying this pain around forever
I give in I can't walk no more

Been facing the throes of this world
How it shook me
Oh it shook me goddamn well

In my anger my misgiving
All I need is your distressful delusion
To kneel down to
And all I will be is living proof to the thrust
Of misguided feelings

We bless the broken!
We bless the broken!
We bless the broken!

Take your fucking souls
Pile 'em up high
Burn 'em down low
Cut deep into the flesh
Let it bleed
Let it heal
And let there be scars!
