

Theatre Of Ice "Introduction To A Dream"

Do you ever see eyes in your window
Or shimmering ghosts at play in the shadows
Or do you hear the mournful screams
In the dead of night in your icy dreams
Or is it you feel a need to kill
When I'm in your mind nothing seems real
Can you taste the fear in the air
When the blood starts to flow and no one cares
Just sit and listen in the silence of your room
To the haunting melodies that come from the tomb
