You spent your money and your time
 Done your best to be true
 But if you ask a girl to do the same
 She breaks up with you
 She ain't worth the trouble, do it on the double
 Kill your girlfriend, kill your girlfriend
 No one will find out, unless she screams and shouts
 Kill your girlfriend, kill your girlfriend
 If your girl is ever down and you try
 To give some relief
 When she's OK, she turns around
 And kicks you in the teeth
 When you're up against the wall
 She's got you by the balls...then
 Kill your girlfriend, kill your girlfriend
 Cut her with a knife, take her very life
 Kill your girlfriend, kill your girlfriend
 So if you're smart you'll do like me
 You won't look like a sap
 Smash her in her bloody face
 Before you take her crap
 Come on use your brain
 Put that girl in some pain
 Kill your girlfriend
 Kill your girlfriend
 If you feel the need, you've got to make her bleed
 Kill your girlfriend, kill your girlfriend
