Madman in the dark
Waits to choose a mark
He hears the sound
He hears it pound
Disorder fills his mind
He seeks but never finds
He set down to kill
He no longer feels
He hears the sound
He hears it pound
Can you hear the sound
Can you hear it pound
Does it fill your brain
Driving you insane
Does it bleed in your ears
Transfixing your fears
Does it sear thru your head
Demanding to be fed
Can you hear the sound
Can you hear it pound
Your bred of despair
You no longer care
You can hear the sound
You can hear it pound
With a bloody cry
With murderous eyes
It leads you on and on
Your mind is gone
You can hear the sound
You can hear it pound
