Male Voice]

That cross you wear around your neck;
is it only a decoration, or are you a true Christian believer?

[Female Voice]

Yes, I believe - truly

[Male Voice]

Then I want you to remove it at once!
- and never to wear it within this castle
again!
Do you know how a falcon is trained my dear?
Her eyes are sown shut.
Blinded temporarily she suffers the whims of her God patiently, until her will is submerged and she learns to serve - as your God taught and blinded you with crosses.

[Female Voice]

You had me take off my cross because it offended....

[Male Voice]

It offended no-one. No - it simply appears to me to be discourteous to... to wear
the symbol of a deity long dead.

[Male Voice]

My ancestors tried to find it. And to open the door that separates us from our Creator.

[Female Voice]

But you need no doors to find God.
If you believe....

[Male Voice]

Believe?! If you believe you are gullible.
Can you look around this world and believe in the goodness of a god who rules it?

Famine, Pestilence, War, Disease and Death!
They rule this world.

[Female Voice]
There is also love and life and hope.

[Male Voice]
Very little hope I assure you.
No. If a god of love and life ever did exist... he is long since dead.
Someone... something rules in his place
