"CLOSER THAN YESTERDAY"

Visit "CLOSER THAN YESTERDAY" on MotoLyrics.com

As morning leaves the night
Opening my eyes
I feel that you are close to me
And yet your heart is time away
But I can't hold a dream
That sleeps within my yesterdays
And so coming very close now
I see my destiny
Is to make you part of me
And to hope that you might be
Pure and free

Chorus:

Leave memories on the wind
To spend moments in endless flight
Held over by all you mean
I feel you nearer the darkest night
Closer now, than yesterday

Hoping for a chance
To find you loving me
In the distance searching there I'll be
In time you may come to me
To fall into the world
That once we left so far behind
To learn with each passing moment
As tomorrow comes for me
In the shadow of my life
For eternity to find
The light I see

Chorus
