Some people knocking at the door you tell them come on in
Still they hesitate and they don't see the way to go
Some people don't see what they're worth you tell them everything
Still they stand and wait don't seem to know the things they know
They're on the outside looking in
You tell them come on in
You give them everything

Lock in on love locked in on loving you
It's so simple and so true
Lock in on love you'll find out what to do
And your love will see you through

Some people sitting on the fence you tell them come right down
Still they seem to wait they seem afraid to let it be Some people don't know what to do they haven't looked around
So they hold on tight they miss the things there are to see
They're on the fence they're looking down
You show them where they're bound
You tell them come around

Lock in on love your love will make you free You'll be all that you can be
Lock in on love 'cause love is good for you
You will see what you can do

They're on the outside looking in
You tell them come on in
You give them everything
Lock in on love lock in on looking out
And you'll see what loves' about
Lock in on love you'll find your love can heal
And you'll know how much you feel
Lock in on love locked in on loving you
It's so simple and so true

Lock in on love you'll find out what to do
And your love will see you through
