"When The Day Is Done"

When the day is done
I hope you're still the same
I hope that nothing's changed
With you

When the day is done
There's something in your eyes
Have they seen too many lies
Come true?

When the day is done
When the day is done

When the day is done
A secret I can keep
A promise I have deep
With you

Oh no something's wrong
The fastest things
Have slowly gone

When the day is done
I hope you're still the same
I hope that nothing's changed
With you

When the day is done
There's something in your eyes
Have they seen too many lies
Come true?

When the day is done
When the day is done
