Well, it's important that you understand me

Appreciate my point of view

Some date and time I'm goin' to make you mine

I ain't never givin' up on you

So don't keep tellin' me

You're just not ready to give your love away

Someday someday, somebody's gonna love you

Someday someday, what will be will be

Someday someday, now you open your eyes

And you'll see, baby, it's me

Well I heard her like a rollin' thunder

And I felt her like a motherless son

Steady and strong I still hold on

Waiting for my chance to come

So don't keep tellin' me

You're just not ready to give your love away

Someday someday, somebody's gonna love you

Someday someday, what will be will be

Someday someday, now you open your eyes

And you'll see, baby, it's me, yes girl, it's me

Soundin' better

So, don't keep tellin' me
You're just not ready to give your love away
So, don't keep tellin' me
You're just not ready to give your love away
Someday someday, somebody's gonna love you
Someday someday, what will be will be
Someday someday, now you open your eyes
And you'll see, baby, it's me
Someday someday, somebody's gonna love you
Someday someday, what will be will be
Someday someday, now you open your eyes
And you'll see, baby, it's me
Someday someday
Someday someday
Someday someday
