Regardless of on certain things,
Don't keep on giving love a chance.
No matter how, it all appears,
This love is stronger than to keep me in.

It all began with the sweetest kiss,
With the promise of the love we cherish.
Our hearts were full of gratitude and trust.
I think it comes to this,
Baby you're mine, baby you're mine.
Been at a time, been at a time.

Regardless of on certain things,
Don't keep on giving love a chance.
No matter how, it all appears,
This love is stronger than to keep me in.
Baby you're mine, baby you're mine.
Been at a time, been at a time.

Regardless of on certain things,
Don't keep on giving love a chance.
No matter how, it all appears,
This love is stronger than to keep me in.
Been with you right here.
Baby you're mine, baby you're mine.

Yeah. No matter how, it all appears,
Baby you're mine, baby you're mine.
Gonna be right here.
Baby you're mine, baby you're mine.
You're still here. I say you're still here.
All appears.
