Oh, I hear the rains
I see the fire
I feel the flame
It doesn't change
All the faces I want to blame
For the spaces in between the shame
I'm feeling...

The Kingdom's calling
The Kingdom's calling you

You virgin saint and
You virgin soul
Can't you hear me at all
Because the winds of change will blow again
And when that highway ends
Will you hear it calling you

The Kingdom's calling you

We are the lucky ones
Who travel on towards the sun
Baby, we're the lucky ones
I can hear it calling me
The kingdom's calling me
The kingdom's callin

Can you hear it calling you?

The Kingdom's calling you
The Kingdom's calling
Thy will be done here
The Kingdom's calling you

I'll take care of you
This I know is true
