What's that look
In your eyes
That disapproving stare
Talk about me
All you want but I just ain't going no where

If I don't act
the way you want it doesn't mean that I don't care but like me or not this is all I got and I just ain't going no where no I just ain't going no where

Cause I could be Dead wrong
But I won't apologize
I could be
Dead wrong
Won't go down without a fight

Won't you give me a reason to keep on believing don't let me be dead wrong
tonight

Throwing things into the air never thinking about where they land but you know what really scares me most is watching your steady hand watching your steady hand

Cause I could be
Dead wrong
But I won't apologize
I could be
Dead wrong
Won't go down without a fight

to keep on believing

tonight I want to be the one who's right
for once
tonight I want to be the one who's right
for once

I could be
Dead wrong
But I won't apologize
I could be
Dead wrong
Won't go down without a fight

I don't want to be dead wrong
Tonight
