When ever the sun doesn't shine
When ever the clouds cover up the sky I'll be there with you
If ever the world doesn't turn
If ever the dreams that we made all burn I'll still have you

And we'll sing
'til the stardust
falls around us
and we breathe it in Sing till tomorrow
don't let sorrow
swallow everything

If all of the seasons were changed
And only these hours with you would remain
I won't be afraid
Here in the shade of the stars
Say everything that's in your heart

I'll listen to you

And we'll sing
'til the stardust
falls around us
and we breathe it in Sing till tomorrow
don't let sorrow
swallow everything

And we're drifting away
over the waves
to where we belong
this is our song

this is our song

And we'll sing
'til the stardust
falls around us
and we breathe it in

Sing till tomorrow
don't let sorrow
swallow everything
