This is warning number one
There's no more right to bring a gun
And no taking shit from you
This all is supposed to be your best years

You are nothing
You run nowhere

I was feeling down
So you pushed me around
I'm not a people man
I guess we'll never be friends

You run nothing
You are nowhere

Why you talking on me?
You never bothered, little piece of shit
Fuck you, or to fuck me
I've won, you stupid

You run nothing
You are nowhere
