Leave me alone

Every once in a while I had to take a beating, but by then I didn't care
The way I saw it, everybody took a beating sometimes

I was born under a punch bag and you, you know I'll never punch you back Bite the hand that's feeding me and you bring the nightmare back

Destroy me, I love you every day, come home and take the tears away
Destroy me, I love you every day and I wish you were dead

Try to smile every day and now you're gonna wipe my smile away
All the fear's beaten out of me and I don't bruise any more

Destroy me, I love you every day, come home and take
the tears away
Destroy me, I love you every day and I wish you were
dead

And you do as you're told
And tell your friends you fell
And you do as you're told
And tell your friends you fell
You fell

Sometimes I want those things

My dick is big and red for every girl I'd like someday And my life is suffering for what you'll never be

Destroy me, I love you every day, come home and take
the tears away
Destroy me, I love you every day and I wish you were
dead
