I think we should probably call it a night now It's just as well because, er, because we got a lot of things
sorted out tonight that needed sorting out, I suppose I'll take a taxi home
I think I'll...
Thanks for coming
Mind your step on the way home
The roads are busy
Tonight just pick the ones you know
Thanks for coming
Stick to all the place you've been Thanks for coming again
There's not really much difference between what you think and what I think. It's just convictions I suppose But, it's what I've come to believe, we have none looking for

Thanks for coming
Mind your step on the way home
The roads are busy
Tonight just pick the ones you know
Thanks for coming
Mind your step on the way home
The roads are busy
So pick the ones you know
Thanks for coming
Mind your step on the way home
The roads are busy
Tonight just pick the ones you know
Thanks for calling
Mind your step on the way home
Find the God
And thank him
Thanks for coming
Mind your step on the way home
The roads are busy
Tonight just pick the ones you know
Thanks for coming
Mind your step on your way home
The path is crowded
