Can't find love, can't find love
Can't find love, can't find love
When there is nothing to believe in

Biting on the lonely bullet 'cause you can't find love Counting all the heartless stars at night one by one Try to keep your heart from breakin' 'cause you can't find love
Tasting all the tears you cry at night one by one
When there is nothing to believe in

You can't find love all alone
You can't find love all alone, no, all alone

Running through the sleepless nights 'cause you can't find love
Cry away the lonesome day 'cause you can't find love
Crowded into solitary with the lonesome ones
Love could set your heart on fire if it would return With something you can believe in

You can't find love all alone
You can't find love all alone, no baby

Find love, find love, well, come on Find love, find love, well, come on, well, come on

Can't find love all alone
(Can't find love)
You can't find love all alone, oh
(Can't find love)

Walk fine, talk fine, do it if it feels fine
But don't say no, no
Walk fine, talk fine, do it if it feels fine
But don't say no, no

She's got a fat ass, no class, so bad she'll never pass
But don't say no
We're the slow kind, fast kind, do it till it wrecks your mind

But don't say no

Oh, take some, make some, do it till you make her come

But don't say no

Oh, inside, outside, no one gets a free ride

But don't say no

My time, your time
