Mary, I'll love her all my life
But she'll never be my wife
'Cos she broke my heart, broke my trust
Now I can't believe that she's serious

I love her, I will never marry Mary
No, I'll never marry Mary

Restless and wild, she runs away
Comes back and tells me she's here to stay
Tried to give her time but she wanted more
Now I just don't feel like I did before

I love her, but I will never marry Mary
No, I'll never marry Mary

Mary, tried to understand
But I can't stay here at your command
I got to break away, it's been too long
Still I can't say all the feeling's gone

I love her, I will never marry Mary
Oh, no, I never marry Mary

I never marry Mary
Said I never marry Mary
Never marry Mary, never marry Mary
I said I never, I know I never

I know I never, I think I might never
I know it might never, I wish I could but I'll never I'd like to do it but I never [Incomprehensible]
