Unused lyrics from lyric sheet:

...and there in the dawn of the nuclear twilight
In the heart of the glowing city
She stood
Pen in hand

Lalalalalalala

Lalalalalala

Lalalalalalala

Lalalalalala

Go and find rose and ask her 'bout order

Go and find rose and ask her 'bout yale

There is no more yale (yaaaaaa!)

There is no more order (yaaaaaay!)

I was out on the river

And in the darkness before me

In the light of the domed city

I saw rose lightning rose

She wasn't perfect

But she was semi-perfect

And she remembered all about her days in yale

Before they turned it into a sheet

Of radio-active glass

Thirty miles across

And I always used to want to think if we could sing

Loudly enough

If we could sing strong enough

And if we could sing

Hopefully enough

Then all of this madness would disappear

And if we could sing

Long enough

If we could sing strong enough

And if we could sing true enough

It might carry us through next year

Lalalalalalala

Lalalalalala

Lalalalalalala

Lalalalalala

Go and find rose and ask about nuclear
Go and find rose and ask her "what now? "
She'll tell you 'bout future
She'll tell you 'bout how to live beyond the pale

When the time comes...seize it
When the dream starts....believe in it
When the light shines...oh, bathe in it

And now we'll have to be
Strong enough
Have to work long enough
And if we believe
True enough
Then much of this madness'll disappear

I'll be the one
She said
I'll be the only one
In the aftermath of atomic fire
I'll carry us through next year

Lalalalalalala
Lalalalalala

Unused lyrics from lyric sheet:
What if the world was turned around
What if nuclear plants worked
What if nuclear bombs didn't
What if they held nuclear disarmament
Talks in antarctica instead of switzerland
(in igloos, not fancy hotels!) they'd be
Over and done
In six hours, and be on their way home
Imagine, the light
And imagined that rose was here tonight
And there in her eyes
Was a reason to live
A reason to fight
A reason to die
It scared me....it elevated me
I would do things for her
That I wouldn't do for my mother
My country
My lover
Tis of thee
I sing
Sweet girl of liberty

Sweet bird of freedom
