I can feel the heat risin' up inside of me
I can still remember how one touch baby feel
And thinkin' of that night, the light of the moon
The feelin' never fades, it ended too soon

Standin' in a broken dream
Callin' on your fantasies
Lookin' for the magic land
In her eyes

Shining in the moonlight
Looking for love
Shining in the moonlight
Looking for you, love
Shining in the moonlight
But I'm still alone

A victim of that night
For eternity
Driftin' like a summer wind
A memory inside of me, oh

Standin' in a broken dream
Callin' on your fantasies
Lookin' for the magic land
Tryin' to find it in her eyes

Whao, shining in the moonlight
Looking for love
Shining in the moonlight
Hungry for you, love
Shining in the moonlight

Shining in the moonlight
Shining in the moonlight
Shining in the moonlight
Shining in the moonlight
