It's 3 in the morning and I'm still not sleeping
'Cause I'm finally running your race
The mountains you've been climbing seem like they have steepened
Since I decided to pick up the pace

If the whole world told me I should disappear
Could I fall right next to you?

Just let me burn the night away
Oh, baby let me burn the night away
By thinking of the simple things you say to me
That get me through the day

You keep me wide awake
You keep me wide awake

So don't look back, the hourglass is runnin' empty
You've got me buried with your every move
Your fine lines have me at a loss of memory
I'm right beside you in an empty room

If the whole world told me I should disappear

Could I fall right next to you?

Just let me burn the night away
Oh, baby let me burn the night away
By thinking of the simple things you say to me
That get me through the day

And it's so hard to catch your feelings
When you always run away
You keep me wide awake
You keep me wide awake

You're making it hard for me to just start
Over like we're new
Oh, the whole world told me I should disappear
'Cause I'm falling in love with you

Just let me burn the night away

Oh, baby let burn the night away
By thinking of the simple things you say to me
That get me through the day

And it's so hard to catch your feelings
When you always run away
You keep me wide awake
You keep me wide awake
