I'd be changing if I were you
I'd be changing if I were you
(Get a hold of yourself)
Why don't you
(Get a hold of yourself)

Dollar under the pillow to steal your tooth
Dollar under the pillow to steal your tooth
(Share a bit of the wealth)
I know you
(Get a hold of yourself)

(And there you go)
Pulling favors, pulling favors like you would
(Best of luck)
Cross your fingers, cross your fingers like you should,
Yeah, I've read through all your lines,
Yeah, and I'm watching from a distance
Your life like pantomime

Give what you take and take what you give
Give what you take and take what you give
(Get a hold of yourself)
Why don't you
(Get a hold of yourself)

Wonder what's next, sink or swim?
Wonder what's next, sink or swim?
(Share a bit of the wealth)
I know you
(Get a hold of yourself)

(And there you go)
Pulling favors, pulling favors you would
(Best of luck)
Cross your fingers, cross your fingers like you should,
Yeah, I've read through all your lines,
Yeah, and I'm watching from a distance
Your life like pantomime

Was it something I did

Or were you gone from the beginning?
Changing faces, switching places from the start
Are you done giving in
To every role you've been playing
Spread the message of exactly who you aren't

(And there you go)
Pulling favors, pulling favors like you would
(Best of luck)
Cross your fingers, cross your fingers like you should,
Yeah, I've read through all your lines,
Yeah, and I'm watching from a distance
Your life like pantomime
