I watched you walk away from life
Helplessly gripping my own
I lie awake in my strive
The lights you walked was shown
The feeling that your still with me now
Your watching me from the clouds

I saw you break your innocence
But you left me on my own
You left me all alone
You left me all alone

I watched you walk away from life
My eyes wait for yours
To feel your presence of life
My smiles now are forced
The feelings that you're still with me now
My soul is lost and found

I saw you break your innocence
But you left me on my own
You left me all alone
You left me all alone

My heart has been ripped away
But I have one thing to say

I saw you break your innocence
But you left me on my own
You left me all alone
I saw you break your innocence
But you left me on my own
You left me all alone
You left me all alone
