well, i hear you loud and clear.
your eyes, they say it all:
you cant change the past.
but ill try anyway.

well, i hear you loud and clear.
your eyes, they say it all.
but this time will be different,
cause now, weve seen the light.
through closed eyes,
its all so new.

and as the curtain closes
we all know where youll go.
we're stuck in the audience
and theres nothing we can do.

we all know where youll go.
we're stuck in the audience
and theres nothing we can do.

i still find life in these fingertips of mine.
these pages, i bleed them dry.
and ill bite down hard
and chew off my tongue
and choke on the words
that i never could say.

and i hear you loud and clear.
your eyes, they say it all:
you cant change the past.
but ill try anyway.

and i hear you loud and clear.
your eyes, they say it all.
but this time will be different,
the looks that we exchange.

light streams memory
on this empty stage

and i get the feeling
like youre gonna change me again.

so tell me the truth about liars. (tell me the truth) tell me that we'll be alright. (we'll be alright)
tell me that your bitter heart still beats like mine.
tell me that we'll be alright.

and ill bite down hard
and chew on my tongue
i never could say.
your eyes. your eyes.
