Must be the chronic, nah FUCK THAT

New track, new rap, that's how I'm comin at you black

One for the incredible, original

Lyrical, spiritual, buddha blessed it, manifested with Development, but not Arrested

Highly intellectual, with the inner flesh shit

I'm hittin like the raindrops, fallin from skies when God cries, as the chosen man on stolen land dies

Eyees red, from inhalin herbs from cannabis plants

The need for many grands got me scramblin like ants

I'm like, Underdog, in a world of cats

Too many to chase, so I own many gats

I'm the Nine with the tongue like a dragon

Braids on my head on the regular, pants saggin toes I be taggin, I'm raggin, rappers, suckers

I rock more jams Smuckers, stompin like chuckers

Motherfuckers know my style, my steelo

I flip like a kilo

I'm sicker than a ham and cheese hero

No shame in my game up my sleeves no types of tricks

This is Redrum the Remix!

There's still 99 bottles of beer on the wall, and still it takes two niggaz to drink them all Yes y'all I crawl and creep, jump out of a Jeep Pull you off your feet, leave you in the street, incomplete like dat, I'm ill for the dollar bill I will kill on the hill in Brownsville, and blow your ass to Peteskil Chill, until we show love for real I only trust my steel, I ain't the one to peel with the raw deal
Sometimes a psycho, never let the mic go
I flow like the blood in Nile when Moses went buckwild
So don't mess sonny, you dummy
Your rap style is crummy, my voice is dirty and bummy
Your honey, is checkin me now, I'm on the prow So money, let me hold her for a little while I'll send her back, cause I ain't keepin no hoe who wants my dough
Met her at my show I bust her drawers on the down low

Lord have mercy, I heard you wan' jerk me But you cyan't do dat, son I thought you knew that My style is wicked, feelin the potential Switchin up my flow and fuckin with your mental Me non-stop, until me rule hip-hop, BLAOW BLOAW
Me non-stop until me rule hip-hop
Me non-stop, until me rule hip-hop, BLAOW BLOAW
Me non-stop until me rule hip-hop
Cease and seckle with the blood clot cryin
Let me take a verse from the one Mad Lion
"Too many suckers, and not eonugh time to buck em all down with one clip from me nine" Me comin a one, me comin a two, me comin a three, me comin a four Me comin to rip, me comin to kick, me comin to stick down your door
REMEMBER.. to let me in when I come in or else get a taste of Redrum
