Been in this rut now
For far to long
I need to break away from
This indecision

Get back gotta gotta get back now
Get back where you belong
I've got one wicked eye
And a screamin' soul
Screamin' out for You

I'm 23 and my life
Is in front of me
Could not see what has always
What I've wanted to be
I just wish that you could see

Get back gotta gotta get back now
Get back where you belong
I've got one wicked eye
And a screamin' soul
Screamin' out for You

We gave the power away
Now we're headed for the black days
We gave the power away
Now we're standin' in the last days
