All and all I feel I'm loosing all control It's like spinning round spinning until my feel can't touch the floor it's like everything you've known is all wrong and I feel them turn and stand me in a row like there's something wrong

Tell me how was I to know All this time tell me how was I to know but if it's right, then it's right and I should have known but there's something wrong?

If I speed too fast I'm sure to lose control cause you fooled me once and if you fool me twice I know I'll lose it all cause everything you've known is wrong
