I'm afraid I'm falling out
I'll just blame myself again
It's clear this time it's coming down
To one last final night again

Because this time I'm Fighting a constant doubt
I can't seem to figure out
How we've come so far
But it's loud and clear
I feel the fall again
But can't seem to understand,
"How did we come to this?"

I'm ashamed of where I am
I'm scarred with my mistake
The blame is clear and obvious
That I'm not willing to face

She says I'm lost completely
"I see it in your eyes
And I know you'll leave me
I see it in your eyes"
