I see the sun from below
I see its shadow grow and grow
It throws me awry
And tells me I'm wrong
A chill in a lie I can only feel alone

Even though the only shadow I see is my own
I will grow until I'm no longer afraid anymore
- I don't know what I've been thinking

I can't seem to fight
And I can't make this stop
I've tried to deny it, but it's always been my fault
It threw me awry and told me I'm wrong
A chill in a lie I can only feel alone
