Bloodsuckers

you suck out the oil

for the salt of the earth

you ravage the soil

strip mining mountains

you gauge out the face

you suffocate life

in an asphalt membrane

don't eat your own heart

'cause you can never win

you steal from the earth you'll kill for the riches and decide what it's worth

got your values out of whack you've been selling your soul for a greenback stack

Music: Engler

Lyrics: Engler, Buck
