I see houses burning

I'm ashamed

before you close your eyes denyingly

you'd better ask yourself did I choose something I could regret did I do something

I should regret

Is this the place I used to call -

Fatherland

Is this the place I used to know -

as Fatherland

the silence is illusion

stay awake

I hear children crying in fear and pain

do cowards ask themselves?

Music: Engler, Lietz
