What happened to my life what happened to my pride I'm a victim of your love I can't cope with this world no longer you have my fate in your hands I'm on the verge of self destruction I don't see a way out if this was your intention to turn me inside out what's the reason of my life there's no pleasure in my heart now I'm disillusioned and I had so much more in mind
