We have to do this and do that to get our bodies moving with one kiss we fall flat and do it over again we-we make something from nothing we take a little blame we learn our lessons the hard way we love to play a game

woah woah we can feel our hearts beating woah oh oh we can let it out woah woah we can feel our hearts beating woah woah c'mon and let it out cuz were all just skeletons our bones will never break we know to take things slow we wont be home tonight no we wont be home tonight we got a place to go well keep our heads up and lay low to stay above the water with to drops we leaned over at least we got each other you remind me of bonnie you know that im your clyde don't need a rhyme of a reason dont need a place to hide

woah woah we can feel our hearts beating woah woah

no we wont be home tonight we got a aplace to go from the bottom of our hearts to the top of our lungs what we say is wat we mean and were tied at the tounge we play with guns cuz were not afraid to shoot our mouths off

[x2]

were not afraid

break break break

goooooo [x4]

no we wont be home tonight we gotta place to go
