"Dead man rise"

Wake up dead man, there's a noise
You must attend
It will not quit

Wake up dead man, there's a noise
Your sleep is done
Your secret's out

Dead man rise
You're been away from here too long
Dead man rise
Dead man rise

Wake up dead man, fate has spoke
I'm yours to kiss
He's yours to forget

Cause much has changed since you've been gone
Love's grown wise
It's rules have broken

Dead man rise
You're been away from here too long
Dead man rise
Dead man rise

Wake up dead man, there's a noise
There's a noise you must attend
Wake up dead man, there's a noise
There's a noise you must attend
Wake up dead man, there's a noise
There's a noise that will not quit
