I'm the president of the shadow government
The grand governor of the federal reserve
Public enemy of the society
The one you cannot see
The 33 degree

Before you call the shot you notice I'm gone (?)
Blow up the system and the tables half a turn (?)
Your inner knowledge, you thought I'd never learn
I strike a match and make the whole place burn

I'm the real doc, your MD
I'm your number one public enemy
I'm the run, the runaway slave
I'm the one, the one who got away

Automatic rapid fire
Automatic make me ____ danger
Automatic rapid fire
Automatic make me ____ danger

Lethal, man, me lethal

Danger, man, me danger

Cameras they track me they try to entrap me
Shadows I __know__ cause I know exactly
The knowledge, the key
Of the word on the street

I've got nothing to lose, the whole world to gain
Slip out of the noose, I'm more than your game

I'll be the hive, the pussy, the swarm category five, I'm the center of the storm

And I won't stress
Put me to the test

I strike a match and make the whole place burn

All the dangers can be dealt with the wind (?)

Bulletproof _____

Not gon' stress

Put me to the test

We not gon' stress

Put me to the test

I said all the dangers can be dealt with the wind (?)

Bulletproof _____

Not gon' stress

Put me to the test

We not gon' stress

Put me to the test
