Never mind all the things you heard about me
You're never going to understand it, no
And every time that I've given you the truth
It's never made a bit of difference, no no

Disappointment takes you
Then the doubt, it breaks you
It's enough to make you cry

Always looking for a sign, miracles won't change your mind
Tell me how much evidence you need Turning truth into a lie, hardened heart and blinded
eyes
All you need to do is just believe

Never mind what you think that you would see
It all can change in just a moment
And here before you is all the proof you need Why can't you ever just believe it? Yeah

Disappointment takes you
Then the doubt, it breaks you
It's enough to make you cry

Always looking for a sign, miracles won't change your
mind
Tell me how much evidence you need
Turning truth into a lie, hardened heart and blinded
eyes
All you need to do is just believe, oh, yeah yeah yeah

But you need to believe, yeah
Miracles won't change your mind
Tell me how much evidence you need
Turning truth into a lie, hardened heart and blinded
eyes
All you need to do is just believe

Always looking for a sign, miracles won't change your
mind
Tell me how much evidence you need

Turning truth into a lie, hardened heart and blinded
eyes
All you need to do is just believe, yeah yeah
