"Did Ya Mean It"

There was a time in your life

When you wanted the pain to leave

There were tears in your eyes

You were down on your knees

Asking forgiveness. Said you'd do anything

But, did ya mean it?

Chorus

And I know you know the difference

Between a promise and a lie

And I know you know the difference

Between what is wrong and right

I know you said you gave it all to Jesu Christ

You said that someday. Said you'd do anything

But, did ya mean it?

There was a time in your life

When you were so afraid

Nothing could go right

You got on your knees and prayed

You said that someday. You would do anything

But, did ya mean it?

Now the time has come to make yor promise true

But you sit around after all He's done for you

You need forgiveness, you don't do anything

You didn't mean it

(Chorus
